SUBMIT YOUR BRIEF!

Your journey begins with submitting your project brief, a blueprint of your dreams and aspirations. Describe your project's essence, goals, schedule and deadlines, budget and any other specific requirements.

Once we receive your brief, our team takes a deep dive into its nuances. As it lands in our hands, we embark on a quest to fully understand your project's essence, objectives, and unique requirements.

We will then ask a few questions to clarify your requirements further and with your responses as our guide, we will craft one or a few quotes for your perusal.

Our quote outlines the services, timelines, additional equipment rental and other investment needed to realise your sonic vision.

PRODUCTION

1

PRODUCTION

Whether you're working on commercials, animations, documentaries, video games, podcasts, or any other form of content, our voice-over production expertise ensures that your message is conveyed with authenticity, emotion, and professionalism.

No matter the scale of your project, our voice-over production services are scalable to meet your specific needs. Whether you require a single voice for a short explainer video or an ensemble of voices for a complex video game, we have the expertise and resources to deliver outstanding results.

Our curated roster of talented crew and experienced voice actors brings a diverse range of voices, accents, and styles to the table. We match your project with the perfect voice talent to ensure an authentic and compelling delivery. With the cast set, our experienced professionals collaborate to devise a production plan. Every detail, from script delivery to recording sessions, is meticulously designed to meet your project's unique needs.

CASTING & BOOKING TALENT FOR YOUR PROJECT

Should you choose to use our talent casting services, we take you through a collaborative journey. Our experienced casting team meticulously matches talent to characters, ensuring an impeccable fit that captures your vision.

We can facilitate auditions, selection, and contracting, streamlining the process for a seamless collaboration. We'll work closely with you to identify the perfect voices for your project. Our extensive network of global talent spans a variety of accents, tones, and styles, ensuring an impeccable match for your narrative.

We recognize that some projects come with pre-established voice-over talent or require a distinct selection process. If our casting services are not required, you have the freedom to provide your own voice-over talent.

CASTING AUDITIONS

Our casting talent services are designed to offer you a range of options tailored to your project's specific needs, allowing you to sculpt characters, narratives, and messages that are memorable and authentic.

We believe in flexibility as the cornerstone of collaboration. Our casting talent services are optional, allowing you to choose the level of involvement that best suits your project. Whether you're seeking a handpicked ensemble of voices or have a specific talent roster in mind, our approach is adaptable to your creative journey.

Understanding the diverse requirements of different projects, we offer the ability to scale up or down our casting services. From small-scale projects to grand productions, our casting expertise can be seamlessly tailored to your vision, ensuring that you receive the perfect voices to bring your narrative to life.

With our casting talent services, you're not just selecting voices; you're crafting narratives that resonate. Whether you're aiming for compelling character performances, authoritative narrators, or diverse ensembles, we're here to make your vision a reality.

OUR PROCESS

At RDY Creative, we understand the pivotal role that casting plays in shaping narratives. We pride ourselves on offering a casting experience that knows no boundaries. Whether your project calls for local flavor or demands a global resonance, our casting services are tailored to your unique needs and project budget.

Our global casting network is a treasure trove of seasoned talent and industry professionals. We collaborate only with the best in the business, individuals whose impeccable track record of artistry and experience speaks volumes. Each actor in our roster is a master of their craft, possessing the ability to breathe life into characters and bring narratives to life.

To ensure that your project's voices align perfectly with your vision, we invite you to familiarise yourself with the comprehensive casting stages outlined on the next page. Please note that some of these stages are optional, allowing you the flexibility to tailor the casting process to your project's specific needs.

When you entrust us with your casting project, you gain access to a world of possibilities!

CASTING STAGES

1

CASTING BRIEF

Your brief serves as the foundation for our casting journey together.

2

EXPLORING TALENT LONG-LIST

A list of potential voices is curated, each carefully evaluated for their fit within your narrative, while keeping in mind the actor's level of fame, talent, experience and your project's budget.

3

CUSTOM VOICE TAPES CLIENT REVIEW

You will be presented with a curated selection of actors, complete with custom-made voice tapes. While you have the option to request script readings at this stage, please note that not all actors may record extensive scripts without an in-person or remote audition.

4

TALENT SELECTION SHORT-LIST

After reviewing the self-tapes or voicereels, the client will have the option to either select their preferred talent for the role or create a short-list of actors. In the case of a shortlist, the RDY Creative team will extend invitations to the chosen actors for an in-person audition, providing the opportunity for a closer assessment and evaluation.

5

AUDITIONS IN-PERSON / REMOTE

For projects that demand a deeper connection with the characters, we offer the opportunity to invite actors for a 15-20 minute in-person audition at our studio. This stage enriches your understanding of how the voice truly resonates with your narrative.

SELECTING YOUR TALENT

Once the Client has made their selection and chosen the preferred actor to bring their vision of the voice to life. We take the reins by extending the role offer to the chosen actor and initiating negotiations with their talent agency.

MAKING A ROLE OFFER TALENT NEGOTIATIONS

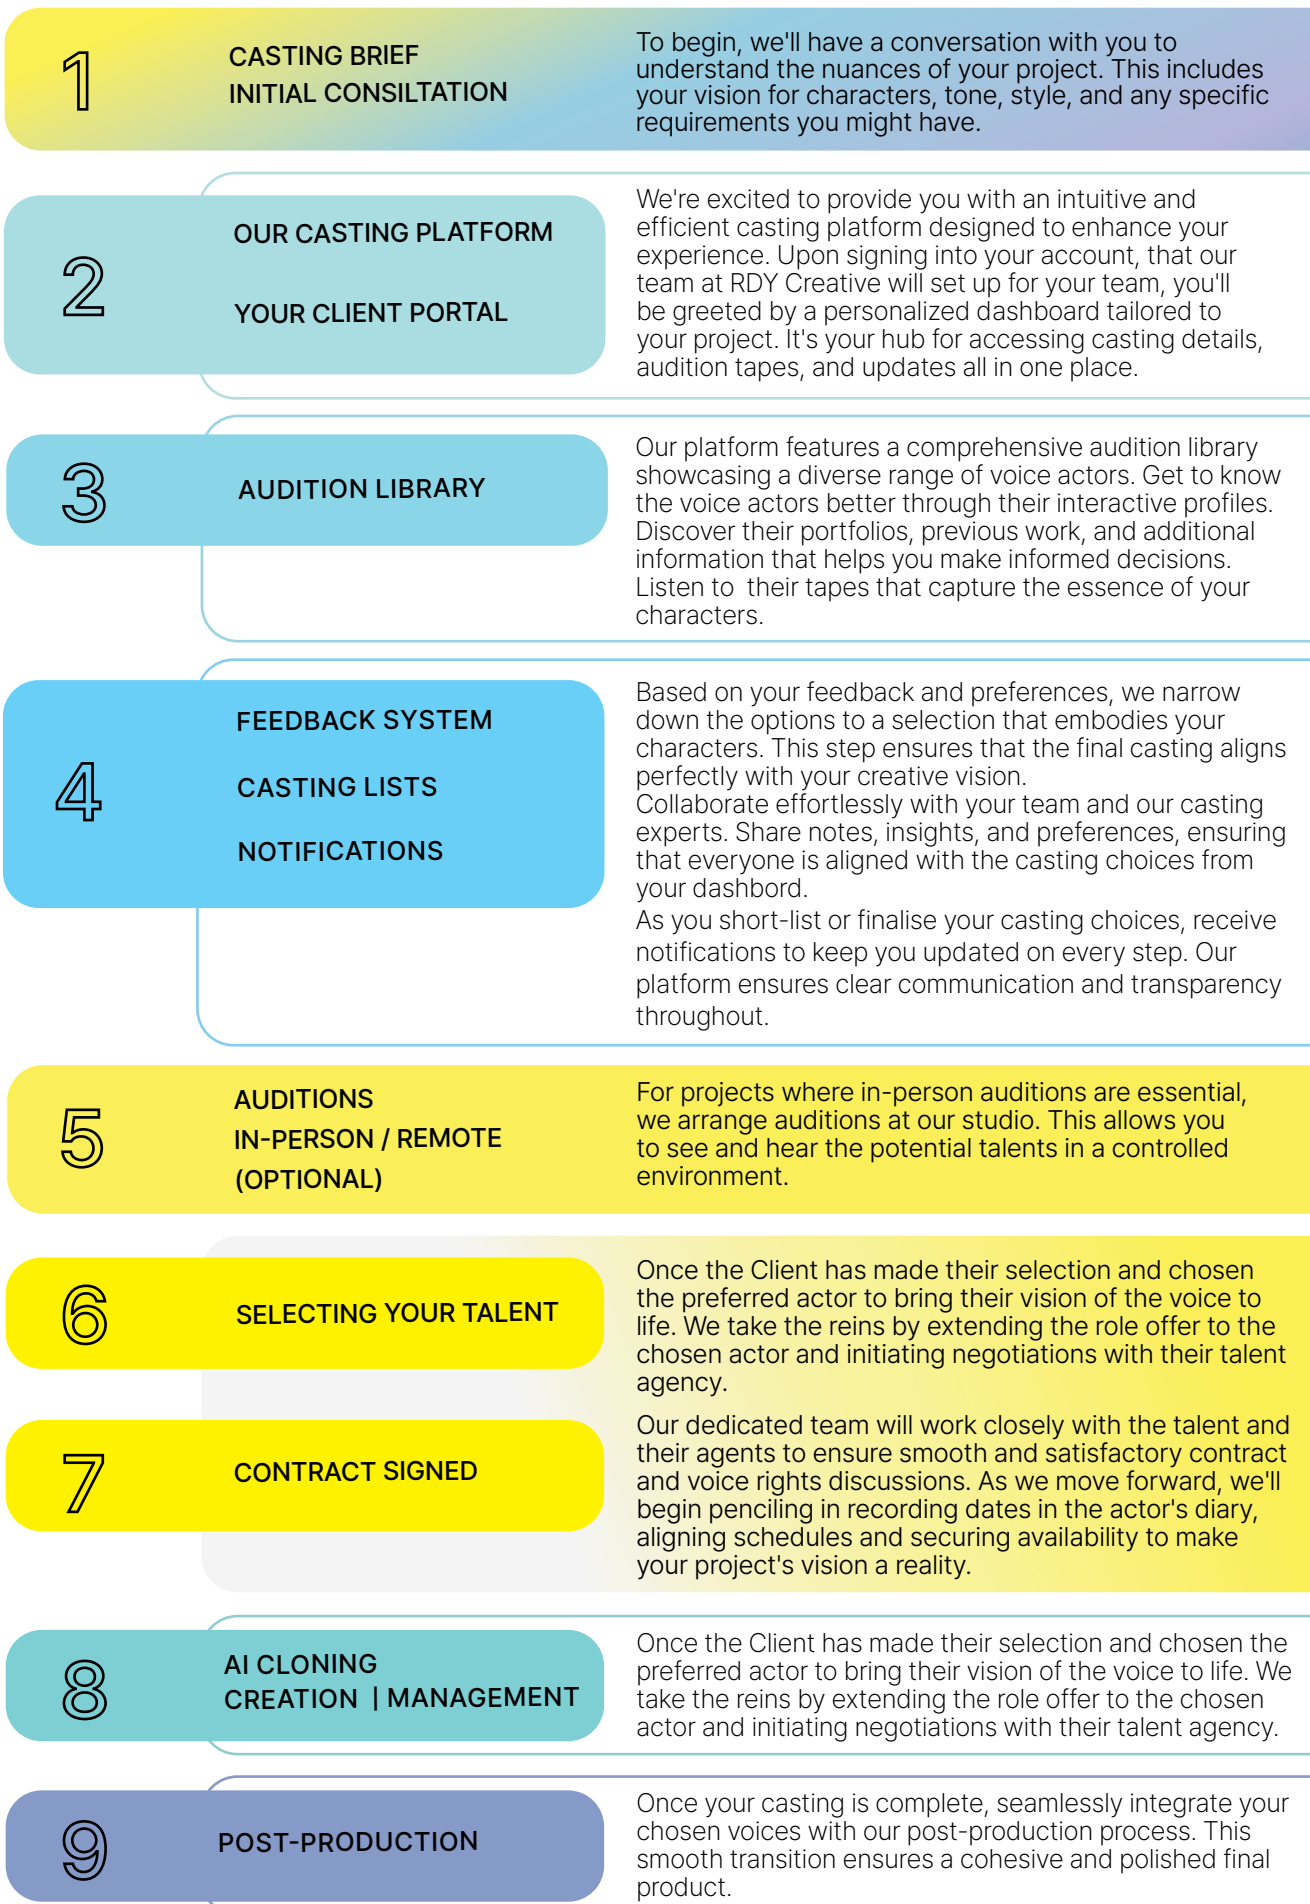

Our dedicated team will work closely with the talent and their agents to ensure smooth and satisfactory contract discussions. As we move forward, we'll begin penciling in recording dates in the actor's diary, aligning schedules and securing availability to make your project's vision a reality. Our goal is to streamline the process, ensuring that the chosen talent is fully onboard and ready to deliver a standout performance for your production.

CONTRACT SIGNED

Should the need arise for a talent substitution after the casting process, our team is fully equipped to assist you in recasting. We are committed to ensuring your satisfaction and will work closely with you to find an alternative talent.

It's important to note that in cases where talent substitution is necessary, the buyout associated with the talent being replaced will be waived. This reflects our dedication to delivering the best possible outcome for your project while offering flexibility and peace of mind to our Clients.

AI VOICE CLONING

TTS | STS

Our commitment to delivering cutting-edge solutions has led us to introduce an exciting service - AI Voice Generation and Cloning.

AI Voice Cloning offers a revolutionary way to enhance your projects by creating realistic voice clones. With this advanced technology, we can replicate a chosen voice for various purposes, from matching original dialogue to generating new content seamlessly. Whether you're looking to maintain consistency in a series, explore creative possibilities, or revive a historical voice, our AI Voice Cloning service opens up a world of possibilities.

AI Voice Cloning offers incredible flexibility and efficiency for a range of projects, including animation, video games, dubbing, audiobooks, and more. It's a powerful tool that can save time and resources while maintaining a consistent and engaging audio experience.

To explore the potential of AI Voice Cloning for your project or to learn more about our other voice-over and audio post-production services, please contact our team.

OUR PROCESS

Voice Capture

We start by capturing extensive samples of the desired voice performance, ensuring we gather the nuances, cadences, and unique characteristics that make it distinctive.

AI Processing

Our state-of-the-art AI algorithms analyze and process the collected data to create a highly accurate voice model.

Voice Cloning

Using the generated voice model, we can then replicate the voice to deliver new lines, dialogue, or content, maintaining the authenticity and quality of the original voice.

Quality Assurance

Our team of experienced professionals meticulously reviews the AI-generated content to ensure it meets our high standards of quality and matches the intended voice.

STUDIO RECORDING

At RDY Creative, we offer more than just a recording studio – we offer a collaborative environment alongside versatile recording solutions tailored to meet your specific project needs, the post-production haven where your creative vision comes to life!

Our recording studio and vocal booth are available for hire, providing you with the flexibility to choose between a dry hire option or a comprehensive package that includes production, casting, and more.

Contact us to discuss your project and explore how our Recording Services can make a difference in your next audio venture.

Flexible Options: Dry Hire or Full-Service

Our recording studio can be rented out as a dry hire, allowing you to bring your project and team to our studio space. Alternatively, opt for our full-service package, where our skilled team takes care of every aspect, from casting to post-production, ensuring a seamless and professional recording experience.

Versatile Space

Our studio is designed to accommodate a variety of recording needs, from voiceovers and podcasts to music and soundscapes. The acoustically treated environment ensures optimal sound quality, while our experienced team is on hand to offer guidance and support throughout the recording process.

Remote or In-Person Sessions

We understand the importance of flexibility in today's fast-paced world. Clients have the option to attend recording sessions remotely or in person, ensuring seamless collaboration regardless of location.

Your Equipment or Ours?

At RDY Creative, we accommodate your preferences. If you have specific equipment you'd like to use, simply notify us in advance, and we'll ensure everything is set up to meet your requirements. On the other hand, if you need additional equipment, our studio offers a comprehensive inventory available for hire.

Streamlined Third-Party Rentals

Need extra gear? Let us take care of it. When you choose to rent equipment through us, we handle the entire third-party rental process, ensuring you have everything you need for a successful recording session. This leaves you free to focus on your creative process while we manage the technical details.

Casting Solutions

Whether you prefer to bring your own talent or entrust us with casting, our team has you covered. Our extensive network of seasoned actors and professionals ensures that you find the perfect voice for your project.

STUDIO RECORDING

Comfort and Refreshments

Your comfort is our priority. Our studio provides a relaxed and creative environment, complete with a spacious green room for larger productions where you and your team can relax and recharge between takes. Enjoy complimentary tea, coffee, and refreshments to keep you energised and focused throughout the recording.

Expert Guidance

Our sound engineers, actors, agents and directors bring years of industry experience to the table. They work closely with you to capture the perfect voiceover, ensuring that every nuance and emotion shines through in the recording.

Arrival and Process

When talent and clients arrive, our dedicated team of sound engineers and directors will be on hand to guide you through the entire recording process. From setting up equipment to providing expert direction, we ensure a smooth and efficient session.

Seamless Transition

Once your recording session concludes, our dedicated team takes over to ensure a smooth transition from the studio to the post-production stage. Your audio files are securely saved and prepared for the next steps.

Post-Production Excellence

Our skilled post-production professionals step in to enhance and refine your recordings. We employ state-of-the-art technology and techniques to bring out the best in your audio, whether it's for voiceovers, podcasts, music, or other creative endeavors.

Timely Delivery

We understand the importance of timely delivery. Depending on your project and our post-production schedule, you can expect to receive your finalized audio files either on the same day as your recording session or according to our agreed-upon delivery timeline.

Quality Assurance

Before we hand over the final files, we conduct a thorough quality check to ensure that every element meets our high standards. We pay meticulous attention to detail, from sound clarity to consistency, so you can confidently use the recordings for your intended purpose.

Flexibility and Customisation

Just as our recording services are tailored to your unique needs, our post-production process is also flexible and adaptable. If you have specific requirements, preferences, or requests for the final output, our team is more than happy to accommodate them.

Collaborative Approach

We believe in collaboration and value your input. If you have any feedback or adjustments you'd like to make after receiving the initial post-production files, we're here to work with you and ensure that the final product aligns perfectly with your vision.

Delivery Channels

Your finalised audio files will be delivered to you through a secure and convenient channel. Whether you prefer cloud storage, direct download, or another method, we'll make sure you receive your files in the format and manner that best suits you.
